Bylaws of the association<sup>1</sup>

§ 1: Name, seat and field of activity

- (1) The association bears the name "MOYO - More Heart for Girls and Women of the World".
- (2) It has its headquarter in Patsch and extends its activities to <sup>2</sup>all countries of the world.
- (3) The establishment of branch associations is not intended.

§ 2: Purpose

The association, whose activities are non-profit-making, aims to<sup>3</sup> promote the economic and social development and advancement of disadvantaged girls and women.

§ 3: Means to achieve the purpose of the association

- (1) The purpose of the association shall be achieved by the non-material and material means specified in paragraphs 2 and 3.
- (2) The ideal means are <sup>4</sup>:

<sup>1</sup> Particularly with regard to the operation of association-owned enterprises, specific adjustments or additions to the statutes are recommended. The additional provisions of the statutes from the perspective of tax law for obtaining benefits according to §§ 34 ff BAO and other deviations from the template of the Federal Ministry of the Interior are marked in italics.

<sup>2</sup> e.g. the whole world, the whole of Austria, the territory of the federal state XY or the territory of the city/municipality YZ.

<sup>3</sup> The Associations Act and the Federal Fiscal Code (BAO) require a clear, comprehensive and unambiguous description of a beneficiary association purpose without mixing "purpose" and "means" (for "means" see the following footnotes).

<sup>4</sup> The BAO requires a precise and, above all, complete enumeration of the ideal means. The so-called "ideal means" are all factual activities that the association may carry out in the future to achieve its purpose. The means specified in the text are only an exemplary proposal. The association itself must insert the means valid for it individually in full. Activities carried out by the association without covering the statutes are not tax-privileged according to the BAO, even if they actually serve the privileged purpose. If an additional activity is added that is not yet included in the non-material means, a corresponding amendment to the statutes by the general meeting (attention: majority quota in accordance with the statutes!) with submission to the tax office and the association authority is required, even if the purpose does not change as a result.

- a) Discussion evenings and lectures,
  - b) Meetings,
  - c) Establishment of a website and/or other electronic media,
  - d) Issuing publications,
  - e) Public Relations.
- (3) The necessary material means shall be raised by <sup>5</sup>:
- a) Membership fees,
  - b) Proceeds from events or from the association's own undertakings,
  - c) donations, collections, legacies and other contributions,
  - d) Asset management (e.g. interest, other investment income, etc.).

§ 4: Types of membership

- (1) The members of the association shall be divided into ordinary members, extraordinary members and honorary members.
- (2) Ordinary members are those who participate fully in the work of the association. Extraordinary members are those who support the activities of the association, in particular by paying a higher membership fee. Honorary members are persons appointed for special services to the association.

<sup>5</sup> Apart from the usual membership fees and membership dues, income from events or from the association's own undertakings, donations, collections, legacies and other contributions may be considered.

<sup>6</sup> Restrictions, e.g. with regard to age, gender, citizenship, profession, good repute, are possible, but not required. From a tax point of view, a restriction can be detrimental to favourable treatment in particular if the purpose of the association practically promotes the members of the association and, in addition, the group of persons promoted is narrowly limited from the outset by a

§ 5: Acquisition of membership

- (1) All physical persons who <sup>6</sup>have an interest in the purpose of the association as well as legal entities may become members of the association.
  - (2) The Executive Board decides on the admission of ordinary and extraordinary members. Admission may be refused without giving reasons.
- (1) Until the formation of the association, the provisional admission of ordinary and extraordinary members shall be effected by the founders of the association or, in the case of an already appointed Board, by the latter. This membership shall only become effective upon the formation of the association. If a board is not appointed until after the formation of the association, the (definitive) admission of ordinary and extraordinary members shall also be effected by the founders of the association until then.
  - (2) The appointment as honorary member shall be made by the General Assembly upon proposal of the Executive Board.

corresponding formulation of the statutes, if membership is thus not open to all suitable interested parties in principle. It is to be regarded as detrimental to the benefit of the association if the admission of members is in fact too narrowly limited by excessive use of the right of refusal according to § 5 (2), last sentence, of the statutes or by excessively high contributions or fees afterwards (example: operation of a sports ground exclusively for selected rich persons).

Mehr Herz
für Mädchen
und Frauen

§ 6: Termination of membership

- (1) Membership shall expire by death, in the case of legal entities by loss of legal personality, by voluntary resignation and by expulsion.
- (2) Resignation can only take place on 31st December of each year<sup>7</sup>. The Executive Board must be notified in writing at least 1 (in words: one) month in advance. If the notice is given late, it shall not be effective until the next date of resignation. The date of posting shall be decisive for the timeliness.
- (3) The Executive Board may exclude a member if he/she is in arrears with the payment of the membership fees for more than six months despite two written reminders setting an appropriate grace period. The obligation to pay the membership fees that have fallen due remains unaffected.
- (4) The expulsion of a member from the association may also be ordered by the Executive Board for gross violation of other membership obligations and for dishonourable conduct.
- (5) The withdrawal of honorary membership may be decided by the General Assembly upon motion of the Executive Board for the reasons mentioned in paragraph 4.

If at least one tenth of the members so request, stating their reasons, the Executive Board shall also provide such information to the members concerned within four weeks.
- (5) The members shall be informed by the Executive Board of the audited accounts (rendering of accounts). If this is done at the General Assembly, the auditors shall be involved.
- (6) Members are obliged to promote the interests of the association to the best of their ability and to refrain from doing anything that could damage the
